1 Introduction

This Anti-Corruption Compliance Policy (“Policy”) sets out the principles for countering bribery and corruption by MARAWILA RESORTS PLC (“MARAWILA”). Bribery and other corruption of any kind will not be tolerated, and conduct violating this Policy can be cause for investigation which may result in disciplinary action or even dismissal.

2 Types of Corruption

- A. Bribery is offering, giving, promising, soliciting, or accepting anything of value (financial or non-financial) to a government official or any other person, directly or indirectly through a third party, to improperly influence that person in the performance of a duty or to obtain or retain business or any undue business advantage.
- B. Corruption is the abuse of entrusted power for personal gain. Bribery and fraud are considered corrupt practices. All Employees and Third Parties are prohibited from engaging in any acts of bribery or corruption, either directly or through a third party.

3 Acts of Bribery and Corruption

- A. All employees are expected to refrain from committing any acts of bribery and corruption. This includes the following:
  - a. Giving, promising, offering, or authorizing payment of anything of any value to obtain or retain business to secure any other improper advantage or to improperly influence the government Officials.
  - b. Making political contributions improperly influence a government official, or in exchange for any improper favor or benefit.
  - c. Influencing of third parties to secure improper advantages
  - d. Requesting third parties to secure improper advantages on behalf of the Company
  - e. Provide or offer entertainment, hospitality, and gifts that are intended to improperly influence a decision or gain an improper advantage. If in doubt of any relevant aspect of the policy as it pertains to the work assigned to any director, employee or third party, it is the duty of the director, employee or third party to seek guidance from the Responsible Officer.

4 Reporting

- A. Employees encouraged to discuss or report any actual or potential corruption red flags that may arise.

5 Training and Awareness

- A. Training on Anti Bribery and Corruption Policy will be included in the induction process for all new employees and should be conducted within 90 days from start date.
- B. All existing employees will be notified in writing of the new policy through a memo and will be reinforced by Department Heads at the next monthly meeting.
- C. Add directors will be provided with a copy of this policy in the Directors' Induction Pack
- D. Additional training will be provided to employees based on a risk assessment of needs relative to job function. A separate annual risk assessment for Anti-Bribery and Corruption will be carried out annually by the Internal Audit Team.

6 Penalties and Disciplinary Action

Any employee who violates the applicable anti-corruption laws, this Policy, or any related policies or procedures will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

7 Approval, Revision & Dissemination of the Policy

The policy should be revised as deemed necessary, particularly in the event of changes in law and authoritative sources of best practice in corporate governance. However, it will be reviewed and revised at least every two years to ensure that it is updated to reflect developments in relation to the subject.

The Nominations and Corporate Governance Committee has reviewed and recommended this policy which has been approved by the Board.

The Policy is uploaded on the website of the Company in accordance with the CSE Listing Rules.
